

MINSTRELS HOLD FORTH NEXT WEEK

Many Features Promised in St. Margaret's Annual Affair.

TO PLAY TWO NIGHTS

Muckraking is not calculated to form any part in "Our Town's" scheme of things, but, nevertheless, this newspaper assumes, as its obligation to the community, the necessity of revealing town things as they are instead of what they appear to be, and it was in keeping with this purpose that the Dramatic Editor was charged with the duty of establishing once and for all, in response to insistent clamor, whether or not St. Margaret's Minstrels were in truth simon-pure and unadulterated amateurs or whether they were professionals in disguise, a charge that has frequently been laid against them. The investigation has not as yet been completed, but the facts so far ascertained are now set forth in the public interest, inasmuch as these town troubadors hold forth next week, on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, and the folks have a right to know in advance how it is that they can afford to give the extraordinary show they do for the sum of a mere dollar.

Here are some of the details as far as we have gone, and whilst not guaranteed they are garnered from sources which are considered reliable:

Chas. H. A. Chain: Played the "Curl" in "Janice Meredith," with Mary Manning at Walnut Street Theatre in 1903. Previous to that traveled with medicine show. Lost voice in London fog. Also had considerable to do with stock companies, chiefly building and loan.

Walter G. Case: Has disturbed practically every theatre in Philadelphia and Camden with raucous laughter since 1899, and has always been a specialist at footlights, which he is said to repair exceedingly well.

John J. Kelly: Conclusive evidence that he accepted generous compensation from publishers for introducing the "Banana" song, but in extenuation it should be pointed out that he tried to give money back after witnessing havoc he had wrought to nervous nation.

Joseph L. Kelley: Played with Brothers Byrne in "Eight Bells" at Empire Theatre in 1896. On night of fire he is said to have escaped through rain-spout.

Michael Collins: Substituted for Chauncey Olcott at Walnut Street Theatre during Christmas week of 1867. Also played at Dublin Theatre when the Sinn Feiners gave a loving cup to King Edward. Hobbies said to include mongrel dogs and ocean-covered lots.

Frank Keegan: Played the barrel in "Ten Nights in a Barroom" at Standard Theatre in 1899, but has seldom had speaking part since marriage. Certain mystery here which further investigation will no doubt reveal.

HEED WARNINGS

And Secure Dog Licenses. Cut in Agents Will Delay Enforcement.

Heeding the warning issued some weeks ago, the majority of dog owners here have secured licenses for their pets.

Of Cynwyd, has obtained 110 tags for them, and Squire Arthur, of Bryn Mawr, has secured over 300. There is still a large number who have neglected to get licenses. They will have one more month before they may be caught and fined for their negligence.

Three State department men were to have arrived here in March to round up all unlicensed animals. The force has been cut to one man, however, and consequently the enforcement of the license law may be delayed another month.

Agent Kreiter, of the State Department of Animal Industry, was busy in Norristown and vicinity last week and secured fines against several score owners who had failed to get dog licenses. He will make the round of Lower Merion and Narberth early in May according to present schedule.

Stites Withdraws, But Promises Solid Narberth Vote for Pepper

Two candidates from Montgomery county were among the 40 in the State who withdrew their names from the May primary lists by Monday of this week, the last day for such action. One was State Senator Fletcher W. Stites, of Narberth, who had filed nominating petitions for lieutenant governor. The other was Frank Croft, of Port Kennedy, who had filed for governor.

Senator Stites, in withdrawing, indicated that his plans to back Senator Pepper had not been changed by the failure of the Pepper-Fisher group to take up his candidacy for lieutenant governor.

"I am for Pepper, of course," he said, "and Narberth will vote solidly for him. I have made no other alliances and have no other political plans."

"I withdrew from the race because I did not want to add confusion where feeling is already running high. Besides, like Topsy, I believe everybody is entitled to a vacation. I have been on the job for 10 years."

"It is my opinion that there will be plenty of wounds caused in this campaign that will take a long time to heal."

The withdrawal of Mr. Stites has again started the rumor that he is slated for an appointment to the Public Service Commission should the Pepper-Fisher ticket sail through successfully.

Croft's withdrawal came under circumstances that indicated pressure had been brought to bear upon him by the Vare machine of Philadelphia. The former State Senator was running on a wet platform and it is believed that Vare leaders considered his withdrawal would aid the cause of their ticket in this county.

The Croft withdrawal came into the Bureau of Elections at Harrisburg half an hour after 4 P. M. Monday, the time fixed for the closing of the lists. The reason for this was a telegram from Thomas F. Watson, Philadelphia City Committee chairman, giving notice that Croft's withdrawal and two legislative withdrawals were on their way by train. Earlier in the afternoon, Mr. Croft had wired that he wanted his name taken off the lists.

Local leaders are of the opinion the big fight will be between Pepper and Vare. Governor Pinchot, much of whose strength lies with women voters, will get little support here, it is declared, and he is already counted out of the race locally.

Some concern has been evinced by township leaders over the wet plank in the Vare platform. It will cause no great inroads on the Lower Merion Pepper vote, but it will cause the defection of a few, they admit, who will vote for Vare merely as a protest against prohibition.

COMPANY CALLED OUT BY SEVERAL FIRES

Spring Epidemic of Blazes Is Felt Here.

With nearby fire companies on the jump all week, Narberth has felt a small part of the spring epidemic of fires and the local company went forth four times during the past week.

All four of the fires were outside the borough. Last Friday an alarm was received from Green Hill Farms Manor, where a woods was afire. The blaze was not serious and a few taps with a broom finished it.

Saturday a gas stove exploded in the kitchen of the home of R. T. Hall, Wynnewood and Lancaster avenues. The owner had the fire under control when the company arrived.

Two calls were answered Easter Sunday. At 3.30 P. M. an alarm came in from the home of J. C. Klappert, 426 Brookhurst avenue. Sparks from a chimney had ignited the shingle roof. Two gallons of chemical, quickly and carefully applied, put the fire out promptly with very little damage.

At 8.40 P. M. the local company was called to West Manayunk to aid the Cynwyd and West Manayunk companies. A house in a block owned by Guy Croyle, of Merion, was ablaze. The back wing was burned to the ground and the main part of the house badly burned. Damage was estimated at $1000.

ARCADE READY

The Montgomery Avenue Arcade, new business development on the pike near Meeting House lane, is ready for occupancy. The building was erected by H. J. Rittenhouse, business site developer of West Philadelphia.

The operation includes a central arcade and eight stores. Two of these have been rented; one to John A. Caldwell for a branch real estate office and the other to Reichner Brothers for a fruit and produce market. The Reichner concern is well known in this section. A truck farm has been maintained by them on Meeting House lane for a number of years.

Mr. Rittenhouse states that a chain drug store and a chain grocery are practically signed up. The entire building is expected to be occupied shortly. It will draw trade from the north side of Narberth, from Cynwyd and from the New Merion Park development.

BAKE SALE

A bake sale under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the Lutheran Church will be held next Saturday at Dando's store. The time is 10 A. M. Home-made cakes and pies will be on sale.

VERSAILLES GARDENS SUBJECT OF MEETING

Women's Community Club to Hear Mrs. Fell.

According to the old joke this is a dangerous time of year because the trees are leaving, the grass is shooting and the bluish is out. It is a happy time of year for the garden enthusiast who ignores all his aching muscles in the joy of tucking little seeds into the earth. According to the Women's Community Club is to present a home and garden program on Tuesday, April 13, at the usual time and place. Mrs. Percy F. Fell will describe one of the most famous places in France, the Gardens of Versailles. Mrs. Fell tells of her own reactions to this place of beauty with all the charm of a gracious personality. Coming nearer home, Mr. Frank Baker, representing Henry F. Michell Company, will give a practical talk on home gardening. He will doubtless help solve many of our individual difficulties.

The Woman's Clubs of Pennsylvania and New Jersey will be increasingly excited as the time of the biennial convention of the General Federation at Atlantic City approaches. From May 24 to June 5 the whole Steel Pier will be reserved for delegates to the biennial. On Pennsylvania Day, June 5, excursions to points of interest in and about Philadelphia will be arranged. Make reservations at once directly with your hotel, especially if you wish to spend the week end.

WOMEN VOTERS TO MEET

The Narberth League of Women Voters will hold its regular April meeting in the Y. M. C. A. at 3 P. M., Monday, April 12. The program is arranged as a preliminary to the spring primary elections. Mrs. W. B. Goodall and Mrs. A. C. Staples will report on the recent candidate luncheon. Mrs. Herman L. Schwartz, vice chairman of the State League, will speak on "The Political Situation at the Spring Primaries."

AFTER PARKERS

A dozen automobile owners of Narberth and General Wayne vicinity were given summons Tuesday for parking their cars on the streets all night. They were given hearings Wednesday in the Ardmore police station and fined $5 and costs of $3.50.

Orders have been issued to the police to turn in numbers of all cars found parked all night on the streets

STILL AFTER 'EM

Township police still continue their campaign against auto speeders. An average of two and three a day were picked up this week and fined after given hearings in Ardmore.

FIRST BURGESS OF NARBERTH DIES

August H. Mueller Was One of Founders of Borough in 1895.

LONG PROMINENT HERE

August Henry Mueller, first Burgess of the Borough of Narberth and one of its founders, died suddenly at his home at Forrest and Windsor avenues last Thursday night of heart disease.

Funeral services were held from his late residence, Monday, conducted by Rev. Robert E. Keigh-ton, pastor of the Narberth Baptist Church. Interment was at West Laurel Hill.

Mr. Mueller, who was 68, was a prominent map publisher, with offices at 530 Locust street. He had been engaged in the publishing business for forty-seven years, and his maps of the Main Line have long been accepted for general use.

He came to Narberth in 1891, when the town was still a small and neglected part of Lower Merion Township. With a group of prominent residents of that time he advocated the formation of a Borough, and when that was accomplished, in 1895, became the first Chief Burgess. For many years thereafter he was a leader in civic matters.

He was a charter member and one of the founders of the Narberth Fire Department, and was long identified with its steady progress. For many years he was chairman of the local Republican Club, taking an active part in political activities. He was also a member of the Junger Maennerchor and the Odd Fellows.

Mr. Mueller is survived by his wife, who was Miss Flora I. Middleton, of South Bend, Ind.; by a sister, Mrs. Anna M. Phelps, of Narberth; two brothers, Messrs. Adam and John Paul Mueller, of Philadelphia, and by four children, Mrs. Earl D. Dickey, Miss Emma L. Mueller, Miss Florentine M. Mueller and Mr. Robert A. Mueller, all of Narberth.

ANNOUNCE PROGRAM

For French-Cook-Vogel Trio Concert Sunday at Ardmore.

The French-Cook-Vogel Trio, composed of Rosetta Samuel French, pianist; Frederic Cook, violinist, and Adolph Vogel, cellist, will offer in their program Sunday afternoon at the Ardmore Theatre, under the auspices of the Main Line Orchestra Association, the Gade Trio, three short numbers by Kreisler, Schumann and Moussorgsky, and the Arensky D Minor Trio. Miss Kathryn Noll, soloist, will sing numbers by Rogers, Sharp and Bridge.

This will be the fourth concert offered by the Main Line Orchestra subscribers this season. Two concerts by the Main Line Orchestra, an "Intimate Recital" by the American soprano, Anna Case, have already been given.

On May 16 will come the final concert by the Main Line Orchestra, Anna Prichard, 16-year-old pianist, will be soloist, playing the first movement of the Grieg Concerto, with orchestra.

ANNIVERSARY DANCE

To celebrate their first anniversary, the Beta Chapter of the Phi Delta Sigma Fraternity is entertaining at a dance on the evening of April 17 at the Merion Tribute House. Having gone into extensive preparation, the chapter is looking forward to making it a big social success. There will be novelties, entertainment, good syncopation, along with some special numbers that will make it a thoroughly enjoyable evening.

GOODWIN-COLL

J. Wallis Goodwin, Narberth's popular assistant postmaster, was married Wednesday at York, Pa., to Miss Mary Naomi Coll, of that city.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. W. Brown. After a short motor trip through North Carolina, Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin will make their home at Narberth and Haverford avenues.

SCHOOLS OPEN MONDAY

Measles Epidemic Has Caused Long Holiday.

After an extended vacation, beginning on Tuesday of last week, the Narberth Schools will re-open on Monday next. The epidemic of measles has made the closing necessary.

The schools were closed by the Board of Health after a conference between Principal George H. Wilson and Dr. George A. Sloan, health officer. Nearly fifty cases of measles were recorded at that time.

When the pupils reported to their classes Tuesday, they were informed that the Easter vacation was to be extended nearly another week. Hundreds of jubilant scholars hurried home to make the best of the unexpected holiday.

Thursday night Health Officer George B. Suplee announced that there were 67 cases of measles under quarantine. It was felt, however, that conditions would permit of the opening of school Monday.

NEARLY THERE

Library Equipment Fund Only $113 Short.

Seven new yearly memberships and one life membership in the Community Library Association were received during the past week. These contributions bring the Library Equipment Fund up to $886.29. This leaves but $113.72 to be raised to complete the $1000 needed to equip the new library quarters in the nearly finished Community Building on the playground.

If there are five residents of Narberth who have been intending to become Life Members of the Library Association but have for one reason or another put off sending in their checks, now is unquestionably the most opportune time for them to join. Five additional Life Memberships will complete the $1000 fund. Are there five citizens who during this coming week will each send a check for $25 for a Life Membership? Such checks should be made payable to Thomas C. Trotter, Jr., Treasurer, and mailed to Mr. Trotter at his residence at 209 Woodside avenue, Narberth.

The status of the Equipment Fund to date is as follows:

NEW LIFE MEMBER
Miss Ida Buckman	$25.00
NEW YEARLY MEMBERS
Commander Charles H. Shaw	1.00
U. S. N.	1.00
Mrs. Charles H. Shaw	1.00
Rosalie Shaw	1.00
Charles H. Shaw, Jr.	1.00
Juliet Shaw	1.00
Margaret Shaw	1.00
Carolyn Shaw	1.00
Previously acknowledged	$54.28
Total received to date	$886.29

NEW AUTOCAR HEAD

L. L. Woodward, President of Ardmore Motor Corporation.

L. L. Woodward, president of Fitzgibbon & Crisp, Inc., of Trenton, N. J., has been made president of the Autocar Company, an $11,500,000 corporation, with main plant and offices at Ardmore.

Mr. Woodward's selection to head the concern was made last week, and he at once entered upon his new duties. However, he will continue with Fitzgibbon & Crisp, dividing his time between the two enterprises.

The Autocar Company is the third largest of its kind in the U. S. It has thirty-eight branch plants and service stations.

HEARING POSTPONED

The hearing on the latest new bus route proposed by the Philadelphia and Suburban Transit Company will be held on Thursday morning, April 15, before the Public Service Commission in Philadelphia City Hall. It was to have been held last Friday, but was postponed because of the Easter holidays.

The new line would run down Wynnewood avenue, Merion, to Wynnewood road, Narberth, out that thoroughfare to Montgomery pike and up the pike to Bryn Mawr. This was a change in the first route proposed, which called for a bus line down Wynnewood avenue and through various Wynnewood streets to Ardmore and then up Montgomery pike.

SCOUTS READY FOR BIG ANNUAL SHOW

Entertainment This Year to Differ from Former Affairs.

AT SCHOOL BUILDINGS

The Boy Scouts are "all set" for their annual party next Friday and Saturday evenings. Distribution of the tickets was made last week and each Scout is working hard to dispose of the fourteen which will entitle him to a week's stay at Camp Delmont this summer.

The main auditorium of the school building will be thrown open to those holding tickets at 7.30 P. M. Friday and the same hour on Saturday. The dancing will be indulged in on Saturday evening "after the show is over." For this purpose the gymnasium floor has been reserved.

At the next regular meeting of the two troops on Monday evening the Scout who will conduct the miniature session during the show will be chosen. This naturally will be a first class scout. Already considerable electioneering is going on among the boys as there are several aspirants for the honor of being in charge of this portion of the entertainment.

This week's meeting in the cabin was one of the most interesting sessions held thus far this year. Talks on carelessness and character building were given by each of the scoutmasters.

Instead of theorizing, each speaker made a personal application of his remarks by choosing illustrations from actual occurrences in Narberth with which the scouts were familiar.

The "four big C's" were stressed. "Cleanliness, carefulness, courtesy and character," the boys were told, "go hand-in-hand in their development into good and useful citizens of the future."

Next Monday they will have the pleasure of listening to Commander J. C. Metzel, of the U. S. S. "Saratoga." His talk will supplement those given last Monday, by outlining to the scouts the benefits of true discipline in an emergency. It will be in line with the series of "character building" talks planned for the boys. He will talk from experience in the Navy, where discipline is interpreted in its broadest sense.

The plan of inviting fathers of the members of the two troops to attend their regular meetings is proving to be an added feature each week. This will be continued. It is hoped, however, that any father, whether his boy is a member of the organization or not, will feel free to "drop in" at any meeting.

TENNIS CLUB NOTES

Among the various signs of spring was the receipt of the bill for the annual dues. This was also an indication that what promises to be an ambitious program for the summer has been started.

Strenuous times are expected if the members try to keep up with the program. This goes even for those who don't expect to play much tennis. And the club does have some of them.

One of the things the managers are looking forward to is a tournament or round-robins or something like that where the requirement of eligibility is the entrant has never previously played tennis. Of course, this will be open to anyone in the borough whether he is a member of the club or not.

Oh, yes, there are some members of the club who may be considered eligible.

Another pleasant notice that some have received is that they have been appointed to serve on committees. So spring is not always so welcome.

But now that all the committees have been appointed there is room in the club for a lot of new members. And they will have nothing to do but enjoy themselves.

President Bill Evans is serving on only four or five tennis committees of other clubs and he has Bill Davies and Jack Wine to lean on here, so he will have a lot of time to spare.

And we hear Perry is polishing up the old racquet. So get ready, everybody; Walter Conin will soon give the signal to go.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, One Dollar and Fifty Cents per year in advance

Entered as second-class matter, October 15th, 1914, at the Post Office at Narberth, Pennsylvania, under the act of March 3, 1879.

Saturday, April 10, 1926

CORRECTION

Last week, in recording the death of Hannah J. Wight, of 125 Chestnut avenue, "Our Town" made two errors. Miss Wight, who made her home with the family of W. C. Claghorn, was unmarried. She was the great-aunt of Mrs. Claghorn.

WANTS BUS LINE

To the Editor of Our Town: The extensive use of the Lancaster avenue busses by residents of Narberth during the recent detour along Wynnewood avenue was an indication of the popularity a permanent Wynnewood avenue route will have and its great convenience, particularly to South Siders.

The proposed new route will bring one from Wynnewood, Narberth and Merion to the trolley terminal at Sixty-third street, Overbrook, in five minutes against the half hour consumed in the present roundabout route by way of Cynwyd.

Proceeding westward to Ardmore, Haverford and Bryn Mawr, certain sections will likewise find substantial saving of time in not being obliged to go down to Haverford avenue to get the bus.

In view of the considerable opposition to the proposed new line from other sections outside of Narberth it will be most necessary—if the line is to be given permission to operate by the Public Service Commission—that as many as possible attend the hearing on the amended route, on next Thursday, April 15, at 10 A. M. (probably in room 496), City Hall, Philadelphia, to urge in person the granting of this permission.

COUNTY HOSPITAL CASE TO BE ARGUED AT MAY TERM

The county tuberculosis hospital controversy figured in Norristown Court again Monday morning.

An answer was filed by Solicitor Henry M. Brownback to the mandamus proceedings brought by the tuberculosis hospital advisory board against the county controller and county commissioners seeking to compel them to take action for the erection of the county hospital.

In the answer it is contended the county officials seek to have the advisory board ousted, holding that the act under which it was appointed is unconstitutional, and therefore the advisory board has no standing in law.

In behalf of the advisory board, Attorney I. P. Knipe filed an answer to the proceedings brought against it by the county authorities to have it ousted.

After the papers were filed Judge Williams observed he understood Monday was return day for the mandamus proceedings.

The case, however, was placed on the May argument list, when Solicitor Brownback and Attorney Knipe stated they were of the opinion all legal differences could be disposed of at one time.

A PLEASANT EVENING

If you enjoy dancing and card playing, plan to go to the Elks Home on Thursday, April 22, with a party of friends. The affair is being planned for the benefit of the West Philadelphia Hospital.

Mrs. J. S. Harris, of 135 Merion avenue, is interested in the project and has tickets for sale.

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Narberth Presbyterian Church will be held on this Wednesday, April 14, from 10 o'clock until four.

Sewing for the Bryn Mawr Hospital. All women of the church and auxiliary are urged to interest their friends and neighbors in this work.

A most cordial invitation is extended to all.

PURE AMATEURS

Fred Hipkiss: Called cabs and carriages after all performances at Academy of Music for a long period, but lost job because strident voice interfered with slumbers of night watchmen at City Hall.

Henry Carr: Sang "Six Little Wives" in San Toy at Chestnut Street Opera House in 1902, but left cast because he did not believe in divorce nor Chinese women. Said to receive heavy royalties from Ford for use of name.

Joe McGarrity: A long record of volunteer entertainment for the benefit of the Vore organization in Philadelphia but claims to have always refused pay on account of his great love for the Republican party.

Allie Miller: Played love scenes with Fay Templeton and Maggie Kline on Globe circuit in 1895, and also said to have borrowed a stamp from Harry Lander. Afterwards learned stamp had been previously used.

Ed. McNally: Song for parlor scenes. Always picks a song about parlors. Probably played in funeral parlors. May have acted as lead for Oliver Bair. Report not yet complete.

Additional information has been procured about other members of the cast, but publication will be delayed until some of the details are confirmed, and in the meantime the co-operation of the general public is invited in coming to accurate conclusions regarding the whole important matter. Therefore, all those who can possibly do so are urged to pay the nominal admission fee which shall be charged for next week's performances and with their own eyes and their own ears decide as best they can whether this outstanding talent had its root in native ability or whether these thespians had the benefit of opportunities which were not available to the unfortunate rest of us.

It's a big question, of much greater consequence than the tax rate, indeed, yes, and the advertisement elsewhere in this issue should certainly be the subject of family review in every happy household, and, of course, in all those which want to be.

CRANE ENTERTAINS

The best hopes of C. H. Crane, local druggist, who moved to his new store last Saturday, were more than realized when over 1500 people came in to inspect the new quarters.

Gift packages, bricks of ice cream and cones were distributed. A number of floral offerings from friends were arranged about the store and a record business was done.

The farmer now follows the plow and the chicken follows the farmer to get the bugs and worms unearthed.

PAST CAPTAIN PRESENTS GRID MEN WITH TROPHIES

L. M. Lettermen Get Gold Footballs From Alumni Association.

J. Folwell Scull, representative of the Lower Merion Alumni Association and prominent graduate of the high school, presented gold footballs to letter men Tuesday morning in the high school auditorium. Twenty trophies were given, 18 to letter winners, one to Coach Albert C. Adam and one to Michael Donahue, manager.

The letter winners were: Captain Eugene Kuen, Howard Morris, Harris Fort, Nelson Wilbur, Albert Kohlhas, Marom Miller, Robert Leitch, Charles Mecke, Alfred Odiorne, Harvey Knauer, Mathew Miller, Wendell Stewart, Jack Miller, Frank Jensen, Powell Siter, Jacob Kohlhas and Leon Ostrow.

The 1925 team is a claimant to the suburban championship. It won eight out of nine games played.

The Maroon and White track team looks forward tomorrow morning to a victory over Williamson Trade. The prospects of the team look fine.

Captain Morris seems a sure winner in the shot and also placer in the discus with his team-mate, Wilson, a probable first-place man. Dantle looks good in the hurdles and polevault; Houseman, in the sprints and Derry and Turner may likewise be in the running.

Berry looks fine for the 220 and quarter, with Smyth for a contender in the quarter and half. Kuen and Fry, with Stewart in the high jump and Scanlon in the broad jump, ought to keep things moving.

Miller and Wilson tally up on the javelin, while Stewart and Nelson round out on the obstacles in fair shape. Ottey, Miller and Kohlhas tune in on the mile and the latter uses the vault for a high mark.

The bulldog was made the school symbol when it appeared on the nifty uniforms of the baseball men. Confident smiles of players and coaches forecast an eventful season.

The Fireside

Mr. Wilbur A. Duncan was a visitor in Narberth on Wednesday.

Mrs. Charles Gouret, of New Gardens, Long Island, was the guest of Mrs. John C. Nash on Monday. Mrs. Gouret was formerly Miss Dorothy Mulford, of Narberth.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Boryer and their daughter, Shirley, will spend the week-end in Washington as the guest of Mr. Boryer's father.

Mrs. Harry Burgin made a short visit this week to her mother, Mrs. W. Howard Haws, of Dudley avenue.

Miss Lucia Keim, of Dudley avenue, a senior at Oberlin College, spent the Easter holidays in Detroit visiting her cousin, Miss Isabelle Sayers.

Mrs. Arthur L. Cooke, of Lantwyn Lane, entertained at dinner Thursday evening. Covers were laid for six.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Donnelly spent the week-end at Atlantic City.

The Main Line Choral Society will join with the West Philadelphia unit in the Sesqui Chorus.

Linda Vogel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Vogel, of Avon Road, who has been visiting her grandmother, returned home this week. Mrs. Vogel, Sr., came with her for a short visit.

Mr. Robert J. Nash, Narberth realtor, this week sold the Swayne property in Haverford. The property had been held at $100,000.

Commander C. H. Shaw, U. S. N., of Avon Road, is due in Norfolk Tuesday. He has been in command of a division of six destroyers on a three months' cruise in Cuban waters. They also went through the Panama Canal to engage in maneuvers with the Pacific Fleet on the Western coast.

The Louise M. Butts Studio of Music and Dancing has announced that the classes omitted on Good Friday will be made up Monday, April 26.

Don't miss the last tennis dance of the season at Boro Hall Friday, April 16. Come early, stay late and bring all the friends who enjoy a good, peppy orchestra and a jolly crowd.

SURPRISE PARTY

A surprise party was tendered Mrs. Harry Hollar last Saturday night at her home. The guests included the following: Mrs. William Powell, Miss Ruth Powell, Mr. Harold Powell, Mr. and Mrs. W. Burton Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Newborg, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young, Robert and Charles Young, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Siggins, of Narberth. Figenshu, Mr. and Mrs. T. Delaney, Mr. and Mrs. H. Sundermeier, Mr. and Mrs. Le Bon, Dot Greer, of Philadelphia; Jim Collins, of Laurel Springs, N. J.; Art Kelly, Renova, Pa.; Eleanor Openshaw, Springfield, Pa.

IT'S HERE

The great day for the Junior Leagues of the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church has come! Tonight they and their friends will find out the secret which has been so carefully guarded. There is sure to be a splendid entertainment, some features of which are already known—orchestra, piano selections, fine singing—but the surprise is still untold. Come, one and all, for an evening of enjoyment and encourage the Juniors by a generous silver offering.

The Senior Luther League is looking forward with great pleasure to the devotional meeting of the League of Young People's Societies, which is to be held in the Lutheran Church on Sunday evening promptly at 6.45. They are hoping for a record attendance.

SCHOOL APPROPRIATION

Buys More Than 220 Books for Library.

All the girls and boys of school age, with men and women of all ages as well, are profiting daily by the books bought from the appropriation of the School Board to the Library for the year 1925. In May, 1925, this appropriation, amounting to $500, was sent to the Library for the purpose of purchasing such books as would aid girls and boys in their studies. Such a group would consist naturally both of fiction and of non-fiction which were on the supplementary reading lists prepared by the school, and it was from these lists that the books to be purchased were selected.

The first lot of books was bought in November, 1925, and the last penny of the appropriation was spent in February of this year. While these volumes were sorely needed on the shelves it seemed advisable to proceed slowly enough to insure the most careful purchases for the money.

The first purchase of all was that of the New International Encyclopedia, and experience has shown that no mistake was made there. The New International is recommended by the American Library Association, the United States Government Departments, universities, colleges, and libraries everywhere. It is an American work but gives all nations fair treatment. Its supplementary volumes cover the period since the war and provide an accurate and comprehensive source of material for the discussion of current questions. Not a day passes but the encyclopedia is referred to many times always with satisfactory results.

In addition to the encyclopedia 220 books in all were purchased from this fund. Among the books of reference are the following:

Keeler, Our American trees.
Rosenkranz, Choosing your life work.
Walsh, Handy book of Literary curiosities.
Walsh, Heroes and heroines of fiction.
The Mentor, a magazine.

Among the books bought for supplementary reading are the following:
Addams, Twenty years at Hull House.
Athenion, The Conqueror.
Barnes, Yankee Ships and Yankee Sailors.
Barrie, Peter Pan.
Bok, Dutch Boy fifty years after.
Colson, Letters to children from famous people.

Crump, Boys' book of firemen.
Dickens, Old Curiosity Shop.
Dyer, Ben, the battle horse.
Holland, Pirates of the Delaware.
Hudson, Little boy lost.
Kipling, Poems.
La Prade, Alice of Orchestralia.
Lowell, Poems.
Palmer, Why go to college?
Tomlinson, Story of General Pershing.
Bryant, Children's book of celebrated bridges.

SECOND DEVOTIONAL MEETING

Tomorrow evening, April 11, marks an important date for the Narberth Young People's Societies. The newly-formed league holds its second devotional meeting in the Lutheran Church at 6.45 P. M. All young people of Narberth are invited to attend.

The Presbyterians are providing as speaker Mr. E. H. Snow, Principal of Lower Merion Junior High Schools, who will speak on "The Blaze Trail." This promises to be a very attractive address for young people. The Lutherans have prepared special music for the occasion, while the Methodists are offering the prayer, and the Baptists the Scripture reading and song director. Surely with this fine program in view no Narberth young person can resist attending this meeting.

This is your paper and your advice is appreciated.

COTTER'S MARKET

It is said that the character of the farmer, whether good or bad, shows up in the basket of Potatoes he sells. He may have the reputation of putting all the big ones on the top and the little ones on the bottom, but his real character will show up when the basket is dumped out. It is much the same way with the groceries we sell. Our reputation may be of the very best, but our character surely shows up in the goods, themselves, which we recommend, and the manner in which we live up to our guarantee of satisfaction. Inquire as to our reputation and then test us out on character.
